In Year 1, they must complete the admission requirements as specified in the current Academic Calendar for entry into Honors Specialization module offered by the Faculty of Arts and Humanities.

CLASSICAL STUDIES

www.uwo.ca/classics ▶ Lawson Hall 3205 ▶ 519-661-3045

Classical Studies is an exploration of the ancient Mediterranean civilizations of Greece and Rome. Since the Greek and Roman worlds are the foundation of modern society, Classical Studies is not simply a study of the past. Contemporary debates about justice, freedom, human rights, the position of women in society and many other issues are rooted in antiquity. By examining the ancient world, we can address the fundamental question of who we are today and why. We take an interdisciplinary approach, embracing ancient language, history, literature, philosophy, material culture, and archaeology. Our program comprises two kinds of courses; some consider major aspects of the ancient world (literature, history, archaeology) through translations of the ancient written sources and archaeological evidence. Others focus on reading Ancient Greek and Latin texts in the original languages. The interdisciplinary nature of Classical Studies makes it an ideal component of a Double Major with complementary fields in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities and other faculties.

MODULE	PREREQUISITE COURSES
Honors Specialization in Classical Studies	Completion of first-year requirements with no failures. Students must have an average of at least 70% in 3.0 principal courses, including Classical Studies 1000 and Greek 1000 or Latin 1000 plus 1.0 additional course, with no mark in these principal courses below 60%.

ENGLISH AND WRITING STUDIES

www.uwo.ca/english ▶ University College 2401 ▶ 519-661-3403

In English you can discover just why the classics have stood the test of time, taking courses that range from Shakespeare to Michael Ondaatje. Or you can pursue your passion for popular culture, with classes in Fantasy, Science Fiction, Detective Fiction, and Children's Literature. But English is more than the study of great books. We offer many opportunities to hone your creative and dramatic skills in our Creative Writing workshops, Annual Fall Drama Production, and courses at the Stratford Festival Theatre. The study of English provides students with a valuable knowledge of language, literature, and culture; highly-developed communication skills, both oral and written; and training in archival and digital research, creative problem solving, critical analysis, and persuasive argumentation.

FILM STUDIES

www.uwo.ca/film ▶ University College 2401 ▶ 519-661-3307

Critically engage in the art of cinema and explore the global and historical conditions that have made cinema one of the most influential forms of visual culture. Develop strong skills in critical thinking shaped by contemporary interdisciplinary scholarship. All of our film programs offer the opportunity to study a wide range of contemporary and classic films. Narrative, documentary, experimental film and video are examined within historical, theoretical, and critical streams, with specific emphasis on the study of national cinemas. Attention to modes of film production, distribution, exhibition, and reception, places the study of cinema in larger social and political contexts.

PHILOSOPHY

www.uwo.ca/philosophy ▶ Stevenson Hall 3148 ▶ 519-661-3453

Philosophy is the study of the most basic questions that we ask, such as: What is knowledge? Are there objective moral truths? Does God exist? and, How ought I to live? Sorting through the possible answers requires skills of analysis that the study of philosophy helps to develop. These skills are portable and will help you whatever you choose to do, academically and professionally.

VISUAL ARTS

www.uwo.ca/visarts ▶ John Labatt Visual Arts Centre 200 ▶ 519-661-3440

Western combines the study of art history and theory with lively, contemporary art production. What sets Western apart is our commitment to integrating art theory with studio work from the very beginning of your studies. Our goal is to graduate visually literate students with the technical and intellectual ability to create new forms of visual culture. In our programs you can focus primarily on either art production or history, or combine the two. We also offer a curatorial stream of courses that focus on the skills and knowledge needed to work as a gallery or museum curator or arts administrator.
